Thank you

We would like to express our sincere gratitude and thanks for the prayers, encouragement, and support that has been so generously shown to us during this time of Michelle's sisters accident and subsequent illness. It has been a difficult time for us all, especially Michelle, as she has had to travel numerous times back and forth to Oklahoma and stay for several weeks to help her sister. As we reflect on this multi-faceted trial we see the Lord's hand in preparing us for it as we have been studying James the past several months with the youth. We can't express how grateful we are to have a church family that is so loving and supportive. Please continue to keep Mendy in your prayers, as she has a long, extensive time of rehabilitation ahead of her.

In Christ's Love Dean, Michelle, Zach, & Zeke Shover

Literary Suggestions

Below are the titles of three books recommended by Pastor Mike about the German Theologian and religious reformer Martin Luther who was the catalyst of the 16th century Protestant Reformation.

1. Luther in Love, by Douglas Bond
2. The Heroic Boldness by Steve Lawson
3. Here I Stand, by Ronald Bainton

Greek Class Planned

In January, we will start a 12 week course (1 hour meeting per week; more for homework; minimal homework can be an option) on how to use Greek to study the Bible better. This class will help those of you who do Inductive Bible studies (and those who do not). It is not a class that will teach Greek but more about how to use it for study purposes. Please let Mike know if you are interested so that we can figure out a time and day that best fits everyone's schedule.

Cookie Tray Ministry

We will be delivering approximately 24 Widow & Widower trays in mid December. We are asking that anyone who can provide 2 to 4 dozen cookies for these trays to please have them to the church by Sunday, December 17th. The trays will be assembled on the 17th immediately following discipleship training. Delivery will take place on Wednesday, December 20th.
