Greek Class Planned

On Monday, January 8 at 6:30 pm we will start a 12 week course (1 hour meeting per week; more for homework; minimal homework can be an option) on how to use Greek to study the Bible better. This class will help those of you who do Inductive Bible studies (and those who do not). It is not a class that will teach Greek but more about how to use it for study purposes. Please let Mike know if you are interested in attending.

Cookie Tray Ministry

We will be delivering approximately 24 Widow & Widower trays in mid December. We are asking that anyone who can provide 2 to 4 dozen cookies for these trays to please have them to the church by Sunday, December 17th. The trays will be assembled on the 17th immediately following discipleship training. Delivery will take place on Wednesday, December 20th.

Opportunity to Encourage

Mendy Anthony, sister of Michelle Shover, has been released from the hospital following her serious illness. She will be undergoing a long period of rehabilitation and will be experiencing many lifestyle changes. Cards of encouragement can be sent to:

Men's Prayer Breakfast

On Saturday, December 2nd, all men are encouraged and welcomed to enjoy breakfast together at 8:00 am in the church fellowship hall and take part in a time of prayer. Any men who would like to help cook are welcome to come early and join Roger, Dean, & crew as they whip up a hearty homemade breakfast.

"The devil tempts, that he may deceive; but God suffers us to be tempted, to try us. Temptation is a trial of our sincerity." - Thomas Watson

1ST FAMILY THANKSGIVING & CHRISTMAS LUNCH

As we bring our family-size portions of holiday sides & desserts to a covered-dish lunch on Sunday, December 3, there will be an emphasis on the offering for the persecuted church in Van, Turkey. Please reflect on the many blessings and privileges the church has in the United States as we prayerfully consider giving to the persecuted church. Come with eager hands and willing hearts to find fellowship and service opportunities in which Christ's love can flow.

(Hosted by Roger's & Lisa's class & Youth)
